

Name	Doctor	Jan	Wallcraft
Date of birth	7.12.1948
Degree subject/ Professional Qualification	BSc Hons Science Technology & Society	1983-1987	Middlesex University
	Postgrad Dipl Social Sciences Research	1989	Middlesex University
	PhD service users experiences of crisis	2002	South Bank University
Present & Previous Positions held	Operational Manager for SURGE (Service User Research Group in England, MHRN 2005- Fellow for Experts by Experience – service users and carers (p.t), National Institute for Mental Health in England 2002 to 2006 Senior Researcher, User Focussed Research, Sainsbury Centre for Mental Health 2001-2005 Programme Manager: Adult Mental Health, Mental Health Foundation 1999-2001 Researcher, Mental Health Foundation 1997-1999 Freelance mental health consultant 1992-1997 Mindlink Co-ordinator, MIND 1987-1992
Relevant Publications	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Wallcraft J. (2007) ‘User-led research to develop an evidence base for alternative approaches’, in forthcoming book ed Peter Stasny and Peter Lehman, Alternatives Beyond Psychiatry Peter Lehmann Publishing, British ISBN 978-0-9545428-1-8, expected late July 2007 2. Wallcraft J. (2005) ‘The Place of Recovery’ in Mental Health at the Crossroads, eds S. Ramon and J.E. Williams, Ashgate, 2005. pp127-136. 3. Wallcraft J. (2005) ‘Recovery from Mental Breakdown’ in Social Perspectives in Mental Health, ed J.Tew, Jessica Kingsley 2005. 4. Wallcraft J. (2003) On Our Own Terms– a report on the service user/survivor movement in England, Sainsbury Centre for Mental Health 5. Turner-Crowson J. & Wallcraft J. (2002), The Recovery Vision for Mental Health Services and Research: A British Perspective, Psychiatric Rehabilitation Journal, Winter 2002 – Vol.25 no.3. pp 245-254. 6. Petit-Zeman S., Faulkner A., Sherlock J. and Wallcraft J. (2002). Being There In A Crisis, a report on the crisis programme run by the Mental Health Foundation and the Sainsbury Centre, 2002 Wallcraft J. and Michaelson J. (2001) ‘Developing a survivor discourse to replace the “psychopathology” of breakdown and crisis’ in This is Madness Too, eds Craig Newnes, Guy Holmes and Cailzie Dunn, PCCS Books. (with John Michaelson) pp177-190 7. Wallcraft J. (1998) Healing Minds – a report on research in complementary therapies and mental health Wallcraft, J. (1996) Some models of asylum and help in times of crisis, in D. Tomlinson and J. Carrier (eds.) Asylum in the Community, London: Routledge, 186-206.
Current & Recent Research Grants	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Greatley A, Samele S , Keating F, and Wallcraft J, Patient and carer-centred mental health research priorities for the medium to long term: A synthesis of the literature and policy documents and a consultation exercise with all relevant stakeholders: Sponsor SDO (2005-2) £90,399 		